

FIELDS OF STUDY

Each of the college's more than 300 programs has been placed in one of 11 fields of study that best describes related majors and certificates. Click on one of the titles below to see specific degrees and certificates, and their program requirements, in your area of interest.

1. Arts/Media/Design (<https://www.swccd.edu/programs-and-academics/arts-media-and-design>)
2. Business (<https://www.swccd.edu/programs-and-academics/business>)
3. Cultural Studies, Humanities, and World Languages (<https://www.swccd.edu/programs-and-academics/cultural-studies-humanities-and-world-languages>)
4. Education (<https://www.swccd.edu/programs-and-academics/education>)
5. English, Communication, and Journalism (<https://www.swccd.edu/programs-and-academics/english-communication-and-journalism>)
6. Explorations and Undecided (<https://www.swccd.edu/programs-and-academics/explorations-and-undecided>)
7. Health and Medical Occupations (<https://www.swccd.edu/programs-and-academics/health-and-medical-occupations>)
8. Public Safety, Law and Professional Services (<https://www.swccd.edu/programs-and-academics/public-safety-law-and-professional-services>)
9. Science/Technology/Engineering/Mathematics (<https://www.swccd.edu/programs-and-academics/science-technology-engineering-and-mathematics>)
10. Service Industries, Technology and Information Systems (<https://www.swccd.edu/programs-and-academics/service-industries-technology-and-information-systems>)
11. Social and Behavioral Sciences (<https://www.swccd.edu/programs-and-academics/social-and-behavioral-sciences>)