

ESL SPECIALIZED WORKPLACE COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Completion of these ESL noncredit courses prepares students for effective general workplace communication and specialized communication for specific occupations. The program focuses on constructing and communicating meaning through reading, writing, vocabulary development, oral communication, and study skills. Using career specific texts, this program equips students to successfully navigate and successfully work in the vocational area it serves.

| Code | Title | Units |
|-------------|---|--------------|
| NC 224 | WORKPLACE ESL | 0 |
| NC 225 | TOPICS IN VOCATIONAL ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE SKILLS | 0 |