MANUFACTURING MAINTENANCE TECHNOLOGY

This noncredit program in the manufacturing maintenance industry is the first step into a fast growing field with varied opportunities. This program, students will gain hands-on, practical experience related to installing, maintaining, diagnosing and repairing equipment used in manufacturing industries, as well as develop the skills for maintaining manufacturing facilities/building systems.

Code	Title	Units
NC 382	INTRODUCTION TO SOLID WORKS	0
NC 384	COMPUTER NUMERIC CONTROL (CNC) BASICS	0
NC 385	ESSENTIAL SKILLS FOR MANUFACTURING MAINTENANCE	0
NC 386	MAINTENANCE CONTROLS AND PROCESSES	0
NC 139	OSHA 10-HOUR GENERAL INDUSTRY STANDARDS	0